

A true pirate always listens to the rest of the crew.
He shares the treasure with his companions.

A true pirate never starts a fight.

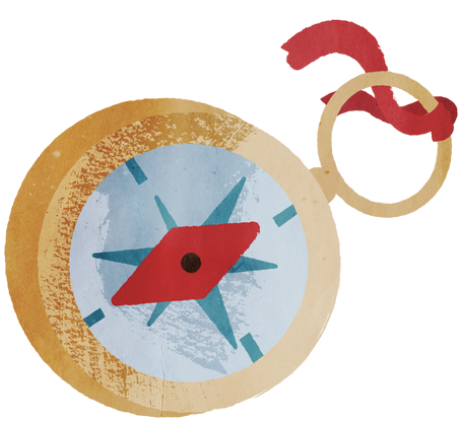

He must take care of his weapons and the ship.

He never pollutes the water of the sea or the ocean
under any circumstance!

To be a pirate, one must pledge an oath and swear to respect this code!

Pirate certificate

Arr, me hearties! Ye be officially certified as a swashbuckling pirate of the high seas, with this here special certificate fit for the bravest little buccaneers!

This certificate belongs to:

